Fear and Loathing in Litigation: How to Avoid Pitfalls and Secure the Best Result for Your Client

8:30 AM - 11:45 AM; REGISTRATION 8:00 AM | 3 SUBSTANTIVE CREDITS

Law school did not teach you all of the potential pitfalls that you may encounter when litigating a case. In this interactive program, the panel will share and invite you to participate in discussing strategies for avoiding those pitfalls and even coming out ahead in spite of them.

Learn the "tricks of the trade" for:

- Steering clear of unacceptable litigation tactics
- Managing witnesses and evidence
- Discovery and motion practice tactics (what works and what backfires)
- Posturing a case in mediation (what works and what doesn't)
- Negotiating with the adversary (what works and what can be bad faith)
- Handling the case which turns on legal issues (both before and on appeal)
- Bonus: Get a peek at how judges view attorney actions, what they see as effective and what they see as offensive

Capacity, Competency and Ethical Interventions

12:00 PM - 1:00 PM | 1 ETHICS CLE CREDIT

Our legal system endorses the principle that all persons are competent to make reasoned decisions unless demonstrated to be otherwise. What happens when an individual's ability to understand information or to make decisions becomes impaired?

Attorney Roxanne Crowley engages you in a dialogue to explore:

- Different levels of capacity
- Guardianship -- requirements, roles, and responsibilities
- Ethical dilemmas in representing a client with diminished capacity
- Who is the client? An ethical roadmap to determining if you are advocate for the client with diminished capacity or for the family member petitioning for guardianship.

Riding the Waves of Life: Divorce, Custody, and Support in an Ever-Changing World

1:15 PM - 4:30 PM; REGISTRATION 12:45 PM | 3 SUBSTANTIVE CREDITS

Much like the constant ebb and flow of the oceans change the shape and texture of the Jersey shore, so does the unstoppable progress of evolution change and redefine the practice of family law. This panel keeps the discussion light and entertaining as they borrow from movies and television to bring you up to speed on recent developments and trends in divorce, custody and support.

Dive into these topics:

- A quick review of existing procedure and case law in family law
- Recent and relevant changes that may impact your practice
- Tips and practical considerations for effectively handling a family law case in an ever-changing landscape
